

Hello Karen,

I wonder if you can help?

I'm working with Ledbury Primary School on a project which will be showcased in the Poetry Festival this year. In brief the project involves the children creating poems for eight bench locations around Ledbury and then turning these poems into short films. These films can then be accessed by residents / visitors via QR codes which will be printed on small aluminium plaques to be fixed to the top corner of the back of each bench (design attached).

There's a little more information on the (currently embryonic) website: www.ledburybenches.wordpress.com

Sample plaque for benches

Size: 70mm x 165mm

Material: laminated aluminium

To be fixed (with four small screws in top corner of the back of the bench)

Intention is for them to be permanent (at least for a few years)
